

2010 Fall In-Service
Sabbatical Reports

Wednesday, September 22, 2010
Center for Meeting and Learning
Building 19/Room 203

Please join the presenters in the back of the auditorium for refreshments and a brief, informal Q & A session after each ten-minute presentation.

- 1:00 Joe McCully, Culinary Arts & Hospitality Management Program
"Teaching in a different culture, China's universities today"
- 1:20 Don Macnaughtan, Library
"Navigating the Buffyverse: a new reference book on Buffy the Vampire Slayer and Angel."
- 1:40 Sylvie Matalon-Florendo, Spanish
"Language teaching: comparative pedagogies"
- 2:00 Bonnie Simoa, Dance
"Understanding Taksu: The Divine Spirit of Balinese Dance"
- 2:20 Suzanne Williams, Social Science
"Humanitarian and Environmental Action on Our Militarized Southwest \ Borderlands"
- 2:30-3:00 Break
- 3:00 Brian Nichols, Science
"Cardiopulmonary Pathologies and Intrapulmonary Arteriovenous Shunts"
- 3:20 Doug Smyth, Counseling
"Counseling and Advising: an Overview of 4 Community Colleges"
- 3:40 Gail Baker, Science
"Biology Down Under: Exploring the Australian Landscape"
- 4:00 Tamara Pinkas, Cooperative Education
"Finding Your Next Professional Job: A guide for co-ops, interns, and full-time job seekers"
- 4:20 Ron Bertucci, Music
"Trombone Performance and Jazz Studies: Private study on trombone and jazz improvisation"