

Student Work Release Agreement

I, [Student's Name], grant Lane Community College (the "College") a non-exclusive, royalty-free, worldwide license to use, reproduce, display, distribute, and create derivative works from my submitted work(s) ("Work") for the purpose of promoting the College, including but not limited to social media, marketing materials, and other official College communications.

This license does not transfer ownership of the copyright, and I retain all rights to my Work. The College may share the Work with third-party service providers (such as social media platforms, printing vendors, or marketing partners) solely to facilitate the permitted uses outlined above. However, the College may not sell, assign, or otherwise transfer my copyright to any other party.

The College will make reasonable efforts to provide credit to me when displaying or publishing my Work, where feasible.

I may revoke this permission at any time by providing written notice to [Lane Community College's designated contact email or office]. Upon revocation, the College will cease future use of my Work but may continue to use materials already in circulation or published prior to the revocation date.

I affirm that the Work is my original creation and does not infringe upon the rights of any third party. This release is granted voluntarily and does not obligate the College to use the Work.
